As part of Black History Month, Year One have been learning about Frank Bailey.

We have written a fact file about him and drawn portraits of him in our Art lesson.

We were also lucky to have a special visit from Barking Firefighters.

They spoke to us about keeping safe and then let us have a look around their Fire Engines. It was very exciting!

We had a Road Safety Talk too this month and learnt lots about how to cross the roads safely.

YEAR TWO NEWS

EASTBURY MANOR HOUSE

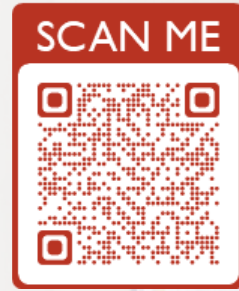

In Year 2 we had our first educational trip to Eastbury Manor House. We spent a day at this magnificent house, learning about the history of the building as well as furthering our knowledge on Guy Fawkes and his plot!

We were able to be part of different activities, which were organised by the Eastbury Manor team.

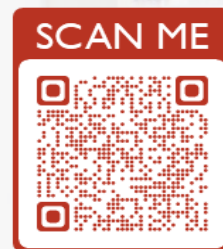

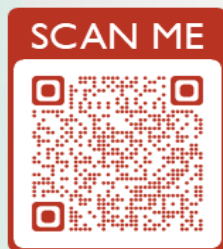

A special thank you to our parent helpers and Eastbury Manor staff for a fun and interactive day.
